Reed To Start Sales Wednesday

The Reed, annual literary magazine edited by Pegasus, English honor society, will go on sale Wednesday morning, according to Dr. James Wood, adviser.

Selections for Reed are taken from manuscripts entered in the Phelan contest last quarter, Dr. Wood added.

"But," he said, "the winners of the Phelan contest do not necessarily appear in Reed. Editors of the magazine make their selections independent of the judging done for the Phelan winners."

Reed this year will have an added attraction, the inclusion of humorous and satirical verse, Dr. Wood noted.

Persons with two or more contributions to the annual magazine are Ella Lefland, Robert Bergquist and Marcella Munoz.

"Miss Lefland has one story that is remarkably sustaining," he said. "The name of it is 'The Madman' and it concerns life in a tenement house from the point of view of a 30-year-old negress."

The magazine will be sold at four booths situated in strategic areas of the campus, he said.

Because there is a limited number of publications available persons wishing to be sure of obtaining a copy, may reserve them in advance by notifying Mrs. Bobbie Waddington in the English department office, Room H-27.

New Building Meeting Held

Failure of the State Division of Architecture to take out plumbing permits for the new Speech and Drama building at the college was discussed in Sacramento last week at a meeting between San Jose City Attorney Robert Cassin, State Architect Edwin Schomate, and Division of Architecture officials.

"The city's position is that whatever reasonable rules have been promulgated for its citizens should be applicable to the state as well," Cassin said Friday.

No action has been scheduled by the City Attorney's office, although details on the matter still must be worked out.

Cassin stated that the project was discussed fully at the Sacramento meeting and the state and city did not seem "too far apart on the issue."

"All we're asking is that we see plans and specifications on the project and that all city regulations are complied with," he said.

Cassin cited the millions of dollars San Jose has invested in sewage projects and the possible high chemical content of waste products from college laboratories, as one reason for the city's concern in the matter.

No further meetings between the city and state officials has been scheduled, Cassin said.

Ugly Man Contest Applications Due

Applications for the third annual Ugly Man contest will be collected today, announced Chuck Wing, chairman of the Rally committee, which sponsors the affair.

The winner of the contest will be chosen by the amount of votes he receives. Each vote will cost the voter one cent and there is no limit on the number of times the individual student may vote as long as the ballot cost of one cent is paid.

Student Talent Is Featured In Senior Variety Program

A variety show featuring student talent will be presented in senior orientation class Thursday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

According to Ingrid Andersson, chairman and organizer, the show will be in Morris Dailey auditorium.

"Ordinarily, only seniors attend the class," she said, "but on Thursday the student body is invited. Regular students will be seated in the balcony and seats not occupied by the orientation class."

Guy Speaks Today

A humorous talk by Robert I. Guy, of the Radio-Speech department, is on the agenda for the Junior class today at their regular meeting in Room 33 at 3:30 o'clock, according to Bernice Rapley, class president.

Miss Rapley urged all members of the Junior class council to attend the meeting, as it is the last one before the council dinner, to be held at the Italian restaurant,

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Mixer Discussed

Members of the Sophomore class council will hear reports from committee chairmen on Friday's Frosh-Soph Mixer held at Alum Rock park at today's meeting, to be held in Room 127 at 3:30 p.m.

Class president Bob Goforth announced that long-range planning for next year's activities also will be considered at the meeting.

Frolic Prepared

Final planning and preparations for the "Freshman Frolic" will be under discussion when the Freshman class meets today at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

The Freshman class project of selling cokes on campus also will be discussed.

Bill Kenney, Freshman class president, urges all freshmen who are interested in taking an active part in these activities to attend the meetings.

Choo Brings Insight Into Korean Issue

Bringing an insight into the problems which face Korea today, Dr. Young Han Choo, Korean Consul General, will speak in Morris Dailey auditorium tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Dr. Choo has been Consul General, with offices in San Francisco, for the past four years. He has lived in this country since 1907.

In 1915, he was a student of Republic of Korea President Syngman Rhee, and in 1924, he worked for Dr. Rhee at the Korea commission, an agency for the Korean Provisional government, in Washington.

Recently he has had published his book, "Korean Open Letter," in English and Korean for the purpose of supporting Dr. Rhee's Korean independence movement.

Following his address, Dr. Choo will be honored at a reception in the Student Union. Dr. William Vatcher, chairman, announces that the public is invited to both the lecture and reception.

Final Exams Under Review

A request to review and clarify the faculty manual rule exempting June graduates from final examinations will be made to the President's Council by the college Fairness committee, Prof. Elmo A. Robinson, committee chairman, said yesterday.

Motion for the request was prompted at a meeting of the committee yesterday after members, both student and faculty, expressed doubt about the fairness of the ruling, and after the committee heard several reports that some faculty members were forcing students, eligible for exemption, to take the final examinations.

"Definite reports and several rumors of instructors exerting pressure on the students to take the examinations have been heard by the committee," Prof. Robinson said. The committee, comprising six faculty members and four students, already has reviewed one case, he said.

Probable cause of the trouble, Prof. Robinson suggested, may be a clause in the ruling, stipulating that a senior may take the examination to improve his grade if he wishes, but that he can not be compelled to do so. The committee, however, expressed disfavor of the rule as a whole, saying that it is not fair to the December and March graduates who are compelled to take final examinations. Either all should be excused, or none, they said.

Crews Finish Work On Seventh Street

The college's new Music and Engineering buildings received a new "front yard" last week as paving crews put in an asphalt roadway along Seventh street between San Carlos and San Fernando streets.

Work on the project had been held up pending completion of a steam heating project from the boiler room to the new buildings. Work on the heating plant has progressed to the point where installation of the asphalt was possible.

Similar paving projects have been completed on San Antonio and Fourth streets during the past year. No further repaving is scheduled in the vicinity of the campus in the near future.

"WHAT ARE THESE," Gerry Charlebois asks Virginia Grattan and Ron Blood as he waves hotel bills before them. The trio will open tonight in "Is Life Worth Living?" an Irish comedy by Lennox Robinson. The play will run tonight through Wednesday in the Actor's laboratory. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Tickets are 30 cents and are on sale in the Speech and Drama department office, Room 57. photo by Fryer.

Football Fans Form Unique Annual Cover

The 1953 edition of the yearbook will feature one of the most unusual and unique covers ever to appear on the La Torre.

The cover is a four-color litho on cloth. The technical name is an Ektachrome color transparency. It is a photo of the rooting section at the Spartan-Bronco football game at Spartan stadium performing one of its card tricks.

This year's issue is the largest ever published at San Jose State, 304 pages. Each of the five main sections of the book is introduced by double-page divisions in different "duo-tone" color combinations.

For the eleven divisions of seniors by majors in the book, activity pictures taken in the departments convey a continuing theme of hands. The photos offer a third dimension of extreme depth in which the background is in focus as well as the hands at work in the foreground.

CSTA Officers

Clyde Williamson has been elected president of the California Student Teachers association.

Also elected to official posts in the organization were Jean Dugger, vice president; Sumi Mesado, secretary; Lois Berry, treasurer; and Doris Irwin, program chairman. Annie Anold will continue as publicity chairman.

sale in the Speech and Drama department office, Room 57.

The show is being produced by members of Miss Elizabeth Loeffler's advanced acting class.

It concerns the Twilights attempt to bring the theater to the quiet town of Inish, and the effect the dramatic troupe has on the innocent residents.

Virginia Grattan and Jerry Charlebois are featured as the Twilights, owners of a hotel. Norma Kregie plays their scatterbrained sister, Lizzie.

The cast includes Joe Lo Bue, Peter Hurly; Robald Blood, Eddie; Jim Wright, Hector de la Mere; Cleo Cebulla, an actress; Lewis Campbell, Michael; Patricia Coyle, Helena; Barbara Remelmeyer, Christine; Clyde Allen, John Hegarty; James Bernardi, constable; Wayne Mitchell, Mr. Slattery.

Miss Elizabeth Loeffler is the director.

The play is done in modern dress. Sets were designed by J. Wendell Johnson, associate professor of drama.

United Nations House Opens Doors Friday

A second international house, called the United Nations house, opened to foreign students Friday.

According to Claribel Mansell, house owner, the house is open to foreign couples and women, regardless of nationality.

Formerly the Boesch apartments on Seventh and San Carlos streets, the house soon will bear the sign, "United Nations House."

Said the house owner, "I hope that offering pleasant, desirable living quarters to students who come from foreign lands will bring more of these students to seek San Jose State college because of the congenial good will here."

She then expressed her disapproval of the exclusion of students because of their nationality.

"Students wishing to enroll in the house either during the summer or next fall should contact me at 292-6 S. Seventh street."

Judo Takes Big Step

A big step has been taken towards gaining for judo the recognition it deserves.

This occurred when the Coaches' committee recommended that judo be placed under the jurisdiction of the Physical Education department. Final approval still must come from the Athletic Advisory board, and the Student Council. We sincerely hope that these bodies see fit to follow the Coaches' committee recommendation.

Why?

Judo has brought as much or more recognition to San Jose State college than any other athletic competition this year. The nature of this recognition has been local, national, and international.

Locally, judo drew more spectators per event than any other sport except varsity football and some boxing matches.

Nationally the recent tournament drew entries from the East coast to Hawaii. The very fact that San Jose was the host for this tournament demonstrates that we are collegiate leaders in judo. This was the first time a judo tournament was recognized by that august body, the Amateur Athletic Union.

Internationally, the recent tournament was most important because no other tournament has been held in which the judoists competed in divisions determined by weight. The understanding was that if the experiment proved successful, it would be adopted in international competition.

What will happen to judo if it is placed under the jurisdiction of the Physical Education department?

Frankly, we don't know. The Awards committee would have to decide whether judoists will receive awards or not. The Physical Education department would have to decide how much the program should be emphasized. We have confidence that both bodies would do a competent job. —J.B.

Thrust and Parry

Real Theater Culprit

Dear Thrust and Parry:

It seems to me the real culprit in the price of theater admissions, and a lot of other high prices, is the 20 per cent federal tax on theater admissions.

Need I say more?

Yours for lower taxes,

Weary Family Forgets Hotel

CHICAGO —(U.P.)— The score Friday for weary Joe Castro was 100 hotels down and 1,285 to go.

The search for the hotel that Castro checked into Wednesday went on but, meanwhile, Castro and his family were put up for the night by the Travelers Aid society.

About the only thing Castro learned Thursday was that there was another man named Joe Castro in Chicago.

Castro, his wife and daughter arrived from Stockton, Calif., Thursday, registered at a hotel, left their baggage and went out.

Then they forgot the name of the hotel and couldn't find it in the confusion of the country's second largest city.

The Travelers Aid Society and the Hotel association went to bat for Castro and started a telephone check of Chicago's 1,385 hotels.

At about the 60 mark they learned that the Devonshire hotel on the near north side had a Joe Castro registered. But when the family was taken to the Devonshire they shook their heads.

Wrong Joe Castro.

Margo Myers of the Travelers society said that the organization had phoned about 100 hotels Thursday night when they knocked off for some sleep.

Pen Pals Project Offers Friendship

By RITA PATTERSON

Approximately 100 European university students, eager to learn about America through the eyes of American youth, are waiting to hear from "pen pals" in this country.

At the same time, SJS students are being offered a unique opportunity to help cement international friendship by joining a "Hands Across the Sea" club, formed recently by a Palo Alto woman with a big heart and a good idea.

Believing in the value of personal exchange of ideas among youth of different nations, Mrs. Patricia Young, former newspaper woman and advertising executive, organized the HAS club, through which she acts as a "clearing house" for names of students wishing to correspond with those of other countries.

Mrs. Young has on hand the names of over 100 European students, and more are promised her. She now is asking Spartans to submit their names as correspondents with those students.

To become affiliated with the HAS project, the student has only to send his name, age, major in school, and other interests to Mrs. Young, P. O. Box 166, Station A, Palo Alto. Her telephone number is Davenport 2-1078.

The names are then segregated and matched with those of European students having similar interests. Thus begins the international correspondence.

Dr. George Bruntz, professor of history and political science, says that the club has his "whole-hearted support." Bruntz is currently taking names of interested students in his international relations classes, and reports that already about 30 have signed his list. He also will take the names of any additional students and send them to Mrs. Young.

Dean James C. DeVoss also is "thoroughly sold on the idea," Mrs. Young reports.

The HAS originator stressed the fact that "there are no obligations except that you write sincerely and truthfully about your life in America." She has a number of copies of President Eisenhower's recent peace talk which she will send any students wishing to include them in their letters.

Mrs. Young has been devoting all her energy to the project since having met a U. S. radio and visual propaganda worker in Vienna, and draws her contacts through persons met while traveling overseas. She became convinced that the only way to stop the spread of communism in Europe is to "implant enough of the truth in the minds and hearts of the youth of other countries so that they will not believe lies."

She hopes that her project, which started in Palo Alto and has spread over the Bay Area, will be a pilot project for similar ones throughout the nation.

Spartan Trackmen Place at Modesto

Led by middle distance man Lang Stanley, San Jose's track squad copped two seconds, a third and one fourth in the California relays held Saturday night at Modesto.

Stanley, after competing in the Coliseum Relays the previous night, took a second and third position in two individual races in the star-studded relays.

Competing first in the 800 meters, Stanley took the show spot behind Mal Whitfield and Hal Butler. Whitfield, representing the Grand Streets Boys Club of New York, is a two-time 800 meters Olympic champion. Butler, participating for the Los Angeles Athletic Club, is a former USC Trojan star.

Coming back to race in the 600-yard run, Stanley took a strong second behind Whitfield.

Sparta's 880 relay squad garnered another place position as they finished second to a swift USC quartet in the two-lap relay race. The Spartans, by virtue of placing second, edged out teams entered by the University of California and Occidental college.

Bill Priddy vaulted 14 feet, which was his best mark of the current campaign. The 14-foot mark was good for a fourth place tie.

Friday night in the Coliseum relays, co-captain Walt Burnett of the Spartan track team dashed to a fourth place in the open 440-yard run. Racing against track aces from across the country, the quarter-miler from State was fourth in a race that saw a new relay and Coliseum record set. The new mark was a torrid 46.8 seconds set by J. W. Masburn of Oklahoma.

In the freshman-junior college division of the relays held at Modesto, San Jose State's Joe Wyrick tied for first place in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 1 1/2 inches.

ATO Defeats Theta Chi in Softball Play

Intramural softball swings into the fifth week of action tomorrow afternoon with five games slated for Franklin field.

The 4 p.m. contests pit Lambda Chi Alpha against Theta Chi on diamond one and Delta Upsilon against Alpha Tau Omega on diamond two. At 5 p.m. APO plays Sigma Nu on diamond three. At 5:30 o'clock action switches back to diamond one where Sigma Pi battles SAE and Theta Xi plays the Music club on diamond two.

The fraternity side of the league has settled down to a two-way battle between ATO and Theta Chi. Theta Chi leads the league with a 6-1 record, while ATO boasts a 5-2 mark. ATO upset the high-riding TC's, 3-0, Wednesday with Dick Russo pitching a no-hit game for the winners. This marked the first defeat for Dick Zimmerman, who holds three no-hit contests to his credit this season.

Other scores that were turned in last week include a 3-1 win by Theta Chi over Kappa Alpha; Sigma Chi defeated DU, 11-7; Sigma Chi downed Sigma Pi, 10-3; Sigma Pi defeated Theta Xi, 15-3; and Lambda Chi Alpha upset Theta Xi, 11-0, and Pi Kappa Alpha, 8-6.

The independent side of the league finds the Music club out in front. They have been idle this week, but will place their first place position in jeopardy this week in three contests.

Krikorian Out Of State Meet

First singles man Butch Krikorian of the Spartan tennis team was defeated Thursday in the second round of the 53rd Annual California State Tennis championships at Berkeley. Krikorian and his doubles partner were eliminated in the third round of men's doubles play.

Trojans Down State Golfers

San Jose State bowed to a strong University of Southern California golf team Friday afternoon, 35-19, in Los Angeles.

Low scores of 70 were carded by Spartan Ken Venturi and Trojan Ralph Miller. This was the first time this year that any collegian has bettered the par-71 north course at Los Angeles.

ROY, "HURRY-UP" HIRAM, a standout on defense at the halfback spot on last season's football squad, defeated Fullback Joe Elm by one point to emerge top blocking back of the Spring Bowl and Spar-Ten football games.

Stanley Will Defend His Pentathlon Title Today

Defending champion Lang Stanley will be one of the outstanding participants in the Fifth Annual Pentathlon which will start this afternoon and finish Friday on the Spartan track.

Today's event will be the shot put, which is Stanley's weakest point. Last year he put the shot only 28' 10", but made up for it with a 1:54.6 half-mile race. His other performances that won him the varsity trophy were: 100-yard dash (10.6), high jump (5'10"), and broad jump (20' 2"). His winning scoring total was 402 out of a possible 500.

Bill Priddy, national pole vault co-champion, was runner-up to Stanley with 393 points last year.

Other outstanding varsity men performing this afternoon are Stan Dowell, Don Cruikshank, Curt Ross, Gene Denny, Jon Braun, Jim Burks, Herman Stokes and Paul Bowen.

Competition also will be presented between novice and fraternity athletes. Those eligible for novice are men who have never participated for a college varsity track team.

Notable novice entrants are Owen Rhodes, Art Hiatt, Val Daniels, Jim Garcia, Joe Wyrick and Bob Burns.

Stanford Gals Lose To State

Stanford university hosted 40 San Jose State WAA women in a four activity day recently. Softball, tennis, swimming and orchestra were the featured events. San Jose's softball team racked up a 15-1 victory over the Stanfordites.

Stanford's women tennis players defeated San Jose's gals in both singles and doubles. Because of lack of swimmers from both schools, recreational swimming was held instead of the meet. Both schools were guests of Carol Scott and Shirley Spackman, who gave a master lesson in modern dance.

Trophies will be given to all group winners and the best 5-man fraternity team. All male students are welcome to participate.

MIKE GUERRERO received a ring decorated with diamonds and black onyx valued at $150 Sunday from Paul's Jewelers.

Tennis Tourney

Coach Hugh Mumby has announced that all players entered in the men's intramural tennis tournament should report to Dick Clark's Tennis Shop to check their positions on the draws.

Players must contact their opponents to schedule matches.

SPARTAN DAILY 3

Locals Defeat Don Nine, 7-2

By RON WAGENBACH

The Spartans reverted back to their winning ways Saturday afternoon as they clubbed the University of San Francisco, 7-2, on the Dons' home diamond.

This marked the third straight win for the locals over the Dons this season as Johnny Oldham held the losers to five hits. In garnering his seventh win of the year, Oldham struck out 15 and walked seven.

Coach Walt Williams' squad actually won the game in the first frame, scoring four runs. Lead-off batter Jack Richards singled and took third when the Dons erred on Don Visconti's attempted bunt. Cookie Camara singled home Richards and Visconti, and then scored on a homerun by Dick Brady.

The Raiders added single tallies in the third, fourth and sixth innings. The host team picked up two runs in the seventh frame. The Spartans committed two errors while the losers were guilty of five.

Saturday's win gave Oldham three in a row over the Dons, as he was the winning hurler in both of the previous San Jose wins over USF.

Brady proved to be the leading hitter of the contest, adding a double and a single to his homer to give him three for five. Visconti collected two hits in four trips while Richards and Camara hit safely twice in five tries.

Also adding to State's 12-hit total were Bob Poole, Ron Palma and Oldham, with single hits.

Coach Williams' nine meets the same Don team tomorrow afternoon.

Spartans Bow To Fort Ord

Unable to cope with the hard-hitting of the pro-studded Fort Ord squad, the Spartans dropped a Friday afternoon baseball contest to the Warriors, 20-0, on the winner's diamond.

Doug Boehner was the local hurler, giving up 22 hits in going the distance. The locals committed five errors which accounted for as many runs.

Bob Thollander, former San Jose Red Sox hurler, was the winning pitcher for Fort Ord, as he set State down on four hits. Cookie Camara, Dick Brady, Ralph Cleland and Bob Poole accounted for the four safeties.

This marked the second time this year that Walt Williams' nine has bowed to the powerful Army squad.

noon in the Bay city and then wind up the season Friday afternoon by playing Santa Clara on the Bronco diamond.

Pitchers for the Don game will be either Ron Kauffman or Doug Boehner while Oldham will most likely hurl the final contest.

Grad Caught In Blizzard; Toes Frozen

John Coray, 1944 graduate, who is currently teaching in Pedro Bay, Alaska, was involved in an accident recently which caused him to lose all the toes on both feet, according to Dr. Boris Gregory, professor of modern languages.

In a letter received by Dr. Gregory, Mrs. Coray, the former Claudette Weissman, who was also a student at the college, told of how Coray was caught in a blizzard. All his toes were frozen before he was found.

He was taken to the hospital where all his toes had to be amputated.
